

Yamuna Express Way Authority

In compliance of Hon'ble NGT Order dated 8th September & 30th November, in the matter of Vikrant Kumar Tongad Vs Union of India & Ors a team comprising of representative of CGWA, Lucknow, CPCB, Yamuna Express Way Authority & UPPCB visited actual construction sites of following projects on 17th December 2015-

1. Supertech Upcountry Township, 17 A, TS-1, Yamuna Express Way

- a. Whether there exists or not any mechanism for ground water extraction? If such a system from said site inspection appears to exist, its description.

No tube wells in the campus could be located.

- b. What is the sanctioned construction for the project and the actual construction at site and the remnant work and what is the water source for construction?

Area approved for construction and actual constructed is provided by builder however inspecting Team member from Yamuna Express Way Authority informed that construction is as per approved plan. Source of water for construction is STP. Proof is enclosed.

- c. What is the estimated or actually required quantum of water for raising the construction that has been actually raised?

8469105 Liters

- d. How much water has been supplied by STP with due proof thereof?

4615000 liters Proof enclosed

- e. If the source of water is through the tankers, which suppliers had supplied water, extent of total water supplied with proof thereof.

Not provided by the builder. Only receipt of NOIDA Authority is provided. Copy enclosed

- f. Whether NOC has been accorded BY CGWA for construction of Tube Wells at site?

No tube wells in the campus could be located.

Handwritten signature

2. JP Green Sports City, KASSIA, Yamuna Express Way

- a. Whether there exists or not any mechanism for ground water extraction? If such a system from said site inspection appears to exist, its description.

Yes, Five number of 6" dia tube well fitted with 5HP/ 7HP submersible pump exist in the campus. It is claimed by the builder that these were existing during transfer of land & are being used for domestic purpose.

- b. What is the sanctioned construction for the project and the actual construction at site and the remnant work and what is the water source for construction?

Area approved for construction and actual constructed is provided by the builder however inspecting Team member from Yamuna Express Way Authority informed that construction is as per approved plan. Source of water for construction is STP . Proof is enclosed.

- c. What is the estimated or actually required quantum of water for raising the construction that has been actually raised?

41246 K Liters

- d. How much water has been supplied by STP with due proof thereof?

30065 K liters Proof enclosed

- e. If the source of water is through the tankers, which suppliers had supplied water, extent of total water supplied with proof thereof.

Not provided by the builder as required STP is available at their own STP.

- g. Whether NOC has been accorded by CGWA for construction of Tube Wells at site?

No tube wells in the campus could be located.

Sanjay

3. Solitarian City, GH- D ½, Sector 25 JP Sports City, Yamuna Express Way

- a. Whether there exists or not any mechanism for ground water extraction? If such a system from said site inspection appears to exist, its description.

No mechanism for ground water extraction exist in the campus.

- b. What is the sanctioned construction for the project and the actual construction at site and the remnant work and what is the water source for construction?

Area approved for construction and actual constructed is provided by the builder however inspecting Team member from Yamuna Express Way Authority informed that construction is as per approved plan. Source of water for construction is STP water. Proof is not provided by the builder.

- c. What is the estimated or actually required quantum of water for raising the construction that has been actually raised?

1725 K Liters

- d. How much water has been supplied by STP with due proof thereof?

2310.52 K liters. Proof not provided by the builder.

- e. If the source of water is through the tankers, which suppliers had supplied water, extent of total water supplied with proof thereof.

Not provided by the builder.

- f. Whether NOC has been accorded by CGWA for construction of Tube Wells at site?

No tube wells exist in the campus.

Answer

4. Beetle Lap, GH-G2, SECTOR – 25, Yamuna Express Way

- a. Whether there exists or not any mechanism for ground water extraction? If such a system from said site inspection appears to exist, its description.

No mechanism for ground water extraction exists in the campus.

- b. What is the sanctioned construction for the project and the actual construction at site and the remnant work and what is the water source for construction?

Area approved for construction and actual constructed is provided by the builder however inspecting Team member from Yamuna Express Way Authority informed that construction is as per approved plan. Source of water for construction is STP water. Proof is enclosed.

- c. What is the estimated or actually required quantum of water for raising the construction that has been actually raised?

19954.139 K ltrs

- d. How much water has been supplied by STP with due proof thereof?

340 K ltrs

- e. If the source of water is through the tankers, which suppliers had supplied water, extent of total water supplied with proof thereof.

The builder provided copy of receipt from M/s Raj Krishna Construction Company . Copy enclosed.

- f. Whether NOC has been accorded by CGWA for construction of Tube Wells at site?

No tube wells exist in the campus.

Handwritten signature

5. The Mirage, GHF – 3, Sector – 25, Yamuna Express Way

- a. Whether there exists or not any mechanism for ground water extraction? If such a system from said site inspection appears to exist, its description.

No mechanism for ground water extraction exist in the campus.

- b. What is the sanctioned construction for the project and the actual construction at site and the remnant work and what is the water source for construction?

Area approved for construction and actual constructed is provided by the builder however inspecting Team member from Yamuna Express Way Authority informed that construction is as per approved plan. Source of water for construction is STP water.

- c. What is the estimated or actually required quantum of water for raising the construction that has been actually raised?

20000 KL for complete construction.

- d. How much water has been supplied by STP with due proof thereof?

90 KL . copy enclosed

- e. If the source of water is through the tankers, which suppliers had supplied water, extent of total water supplied with proof thereof.

The builder M/s Dharmendra Bhati is suppling STP water from M/s Jaiprakash Associates Limited situated at JP Sports City, Sector 25 Greater NOIDA.

- f. Whether NOC has been accorded by CGWA for construction of Tube Wells at site?

No tube wells exist in the campus.

